SPRING 2008

On the Cover

Steven Vincent's ftb #1

Steve Vincent continues to be our top selling author. His newest comic

"FTB #1" is an adventure story for mature readers only. He takes a break from Spazitic Colon to write this five page mini series. For mature readers only. Very explicit and very funny.

Why should you buy comics from us?

Because unlike other underground comic companies, we actually care what you think. We've been doing this for over ten years now. We aren't some fly-by-night company that is going to give up and not fill your orders. We've seen hard times and we've navigated through them.

In 2002, after not being able to make the sales quota that Diamond Comics demanded of us, we dropped out and did things our own way. We ended up touring with bands all over the United States meeting more and more artists and making more and more fans.

We are the only true underground company and we want you to see how awesome our artists and creators are.

Thanks for giving us a chance,

Steve Scrupski
